TUESDAY: CRUSH THAT CRUSH 1

OPEN HEAVEN 28 JANUARY 2020 MEMORISE: But king Solomon loved many strange women, together with the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians and Hittites 1 KINGS 11:1-11 (KJV)

To the unmarried, I want to tell you that a crush is likely to crush you if you base your decision concerning whom to marry solely on your emotions.

It is often said that love is blind and this is very true. Samson had a crush on Delilah (Judges 16:4-18). Oh, I wish he had crushed the crush so that he could see Delilah's true character before he fell into her trap. This is someone who sold him into captivity and ultimately his untimely death. If there is someone that you admire, before you jump into a relationship with the fellow, pray first. Study the fellow's behavior. After you hear from God yourself and get confirmations (2 Corinthians 13:1), then If you are not yet ready for marriage, then a crush is an agenda of the devil to distract you from your goals and to crush your destiny. You had better crush that crush before it crushes you. (1 Corinthians 6:19) says:

“What? Know you not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you...?”

The devil knows that any sexual sin is a sin against your body – the temple of God and once it is committed, that body ceases to be God's temple, so he can now touch and destroy it. Amnonites – David's heir apparent had a crush on his half-sister Tamar and instead of crushing it, he let it grow. He discussed it with the wrong person who gave him ungodly counsel that he acted on (2 Samuel 13). He paid with his life and caused a deep rift in his family... all because of a crush. You have a lot to lose if you let that crush grow and your entire life to gain if you crush it now.
