WEDNESDAY THE MOURNERS

MEMORISE: Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. – (Matthew 5:4)
AMOS 6:1 (KJV)

1. Woe to them that are at ease in Zion, and trust in the mountain of Samaria, which are named chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel came!

Beloved, we apologize for the experience you've had trying to access this PLATFORM. It's not our usual standard and we understand how frustrating this has been for most users, especially users from Canada, United States and part of Asia.

Over the last week we've been implementing a new onboarding system to help reading proficient. Due to an unexpected increase in traffic, we've seen some unfortunate side-effects, such as the ones you've experienced. Our technical team have gone through the platform to ensure that there's no further issues remaining. We also like to get your feedbacks, they're essential for the growth of this spiritual-space!

To mourn is to be grieved by an occurrence. It means to be so concerned about something that deeply affects your emotions.

Jesus in our memory verse today is saying that mourners are blessed. Are you a mourner? Are you grieved by the state of things in this world or are you indifferent?

Sin is becoming normal in our world today and it is unthinkable that anyone will not mourn about this. Even the Church is now striving hard to be like the world. Didn't the Bible say "Be ye separate" (2 Corinthians 6:17)?

Do you mourn for the next generation? Social Media has exposed our children to all sorts of perversion these days and even teenagers are now well versed in sexual activities.

Do you mourn that thousands are dying due to religious wars, and even little children are now being used as suicide bombers? Do you mourn for the state of things in this world? Psalm 34:18 has this to say:

"The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and save such as be of a contrite spirit."

If you are a mourner, what are you doing to make things better? How many souls have you preached to in the last one week? How many teenagers do you mentor, whether physically or virtually?

Are you pursuing a political position so that you can make a change in your own way? At my age, I travel all over the world, trying to get as many people as I can to see the love of Jesus and accept Him into their lives.

Today, I see many men of God, younger and stronger than I am, enjoying the comfort of their cities and the privileges of being the 'man of God' when souls are perishing!

I weep for this generation, not just because of those doing evil, but because of the indifference of Christians who should be making a change.

The encouragement is that Jesus said those of us who mourn will be comforted. I wish we could have more mourners in this generation.

Do not be one of those who are at ease in Zion.

PRAYER POINT

Father, deliver this generation from the corruption of the devil in the mighty name of Jesus.
